

ALAN P. STEWART

ENGLAND.

20 March 1990.

Sir,

I write to give my support to you and your people on your decision to break free from the Soviet Union. I have written to my Prime Minister, the Right Hon. Margaret Thatcher, asking her to urge President Gorbachev to recognise the will of the people of Lithuania.

It is my hope that very soon all the democratic countrys of the world, will support, and acknowledge Lithuania as a free and independent sovereign state. I wish yourself and all the people of Lithuania all the very best for the future.

Yours faithfully,

Alan P Stewart,

President Landsbergis,
Supreme Council,
Vilnius,
LITHUANIA.
